

Changing Statements to Questions

WALT: change statements to questions

Change the following statements into questions. Use the examples to help you.

Example:

Statement: The wind is strong.

Question: Is the wind strong?

1. The sand is soft.
2. The tent has collapsed.
3. The gong is ringing.
4. The pop star was singing.
5. I must go to bed.
6. A wasp can sting.

Changing Statements to Questions

WALT: change statements to questions

Change the following statements into questions. Use the examples to help you.

Example:

Statement: The wind is strong.

Question: Is the wind strong?

1. The sand is soft.
2. The tent has collapsed.
3. The gong is ringing.
4. The pop star was singing.
5. I must go to bed.
6. A wasp can sting.