

Changing Tenses

WALT: change sentences from the present tense to the past tense by adding 'ed'.

Put these sentences into the past tense by adding 'ed' to the verb.

Example: I rush with the wind.
I rushed with the wind.

1. I land on the sand.
2. We camp on Ted's plot.
3. I plant a pip in the pot.
4. I bump into the stump.
5. We attempt to jump in the river.
6. I mend his socks.
7. I limp into the pub.
8. We walk on the sand.
9. I talk to Tim.
10. I crush the grape.

Changing Tenses

WALT: change sentences from the present tense to the past tense by adding 'ed'.

Put these sentences into the past tense by adding 'ed' to the verb.

Example: I rush with the wind.
I rushed with the wind.

1. I land on the sand.
2. We camp on Ted's plot.
3. I plant a pip in the pot.
4. I bump into the stump.
5. We attempt to jump in the river.
6. I mend his socks.
7. I limp into the pub.
8. We walk on the sand.
9. I talk to Tim.
10. I crush the grape.