

Book Review Structure

Introduction:

This introduces what you plan to discuss in your review, i.e., your opinion on the novel, Danny the Champion of the World.

EXAMPLE: I read the novel...
 I really enjoyed reading the novel...

Main Body:

This provides the reader with more detail on the subject that you are writing about. You will discuss in depth your thoughts on the novel.

Conclusion:

This paragraph sums up your main thoughts on the novel. You can also provide a star rating on what you think of the book.