

Danny the Champion of the World

Chapter Three:

Notice the chatty, conversational style that Roald Dahl uses to describe Danny's childhood years.

Write an account of your own childhood in a similar style, whereby you write as if you are talking to someone.

Use the following points to help you:

- Select one OR a number of memorable events from your childhood
- Describe them in detail, explaining who was there and what happened
- Include detail on how you felt at the time
- Describe things from your childhood that happened regularly, e.g., going to football matches, visiting relatives, family days out etc.
- Describe who was there and what you got up to Success Criteria: How will I do well in this activity?

- Write in full sentences-take one thought per sentence
- Begin each sentence with a capital letter and end with suitable punctuation, e.g., full stop, question mark etc.
- Write in PARAGRAPHS-develop one idea per paragraph
- Use DOUBE LINE SPACING-write on one line and skip a line!
