

Proof Reading

WALT: proof read information

Read the following sentences carefully. Put a tick beside the sentences that you think have no mistakes and a cross beside the sentences that you think contain mistakes.

1. I was hopping to get a letter from you.
2. I am hoping about on one leg.
3. The children had diner in the dining room.
4. Why is he writing on that rotten paper?
5. She climed up the stairs slowly.
6. The poor dog is crieing for its master.

Proof Reading

WALT: proof read information

Read the following sentences carefully. Put a tick beside the sentences that you think have no mistakes and a cross beside the sentences that you think contain mistakes.

1. I was hopping to get a letter from you.
2. I am hoping about on one leg.
3. The children had diner in the dining room.
4. Why is he writing on that rotten paper?
5. She climed up the stairs slowly.
6. The poor dog is crieing for its master.